

Motorider (Version 2014)

Revenge

Steel in the wheels
Fire in the exhaust
Leather in the saddle

Power in the core
I'm riding free farewell from home
On a horse of steel and chrome
Is pumping in the engines
As adrenaline is pumping in my mind

Like an evil warrior
on the road I feel Devil breathing on my neck
With my hand accelerate
As I left behind tire tracks and smoke!

Motorider
Speed is my law
Motorider
I live my life now

Dressed in leather, Dressed in jeans
Drinking alone, a good liquor or cold beer
It is my own.

Gasoline is the fuel of my motorbike
As Speed Metal the fuel of my life

Like an evil warrior
on the road I feel Devil breathing on my neck
With my hand accelerate
As I left behind tire tracks and smoke!

Motorider
Speed is my law
Motorider
I live my life now
