

Slave

Revenge

Tell me of all the things I've never seen
And it's the strange days
And all those echoes in between
It always makes me sad to be here
It isn't what it seems
I think of all the precious time I've wasted
While you live your life in dreams

[Incomprehensible], how much more there is in me
I'm in a blind rage for all the feelings that I need
If I could find some hope tomorrow
Then I'll hear you scream
I can't believe the words you're saying
The truth means more to me

Nothing ever lasts forever
And it's the same for you I'm sure
And all the things we did together
They just hurt me more and more

Nothing ever lasts forever
And it's the same for you I'm sure
And all the things we did together
They just hurt me more and more

Nothing ever lasts forever
And it's the same for you I'm sure
Although like now they seem like never
Meet another open door
