

Spitting Fire

Revenge

Full moon is rising and the devil is feeling
When they come we'll be ready for meeting
The strength of the dragon watches over the throne
From above i can see the road

Hear the fire sound pounding
Lord of Revenge now is standing
Waiting for the evil strike
Your fury is like an evil psych

Rise up the swords and share its shinning
Into the night the devil is riding
A rain of arrows unleashes hellfire
We'll stand spitting fire

Satan father, make me strong
My thoughts and prayers to you belong
Death is calling and is near to hear
But tonight we will fight for the win
