

Heatwave In The Cold North

Reverend and the Makers

There's a heatwave in the cold north
I got sunshine when I'm indoors
And I'm with you

Such a fan of this newfound happiness
I don't ever wanna move (I don't ever wanna move)
And if I'm honest, I was glad you'd offered
To be with me in the afternoon (With me in the afternoon)
I wanna write you an ode to fidelity
Blow smoke rings, we can do whatever you
Wanna do, I guess I'm loath to resist
Anything you might choose

Gimme a kiss, pass me the rizz
Let me assist, I wanna twist
A blueberry lemon haze
And in the midst of it, I wish
We could just drift away, yeah

There's a heatwave in the cold north
I got sunshine when I'm indoors
And I'm with you, yeah
There's a heatwave in the cold north
I got sunshine when I'm indoors
And I'm with you, yeah
I wanna spend day and night (So high, so high)
'Cause I

I'm a sucker for that stuff, gimme more
Savouring the aftertaste (Aftertaste)
I just wanna be laid out
Probably the bosom of a warm embrace (Warm embrace)
Is about as far as I'm gonna get
If the party for two isn't over yet
It's a pity your schedule isn't all filled with time to waste

Gimme a kiss, pass me the rizz
Let me assist, I wanna twist
A blueberry lemon haze
And in the midst of it, I wish
We could just drift away, yeah

There's a heatwave in the cold north
I got sunshine when I'm indoors
And I'm with you, yeah
There's a heatwave in the cold north
I got sunshine when I'm indoors
And I'm with you, yeah
I wanna spend day and night (So high, so high)
'Cause I

There's a heatwave in the cold north
I got sunshine when I'm indoors
And I'm with you, yeah
There's a heatwave in the cold north
I got sunshine when I'm indoors
And I'm with you, yeah

There's a heatwave in the cold north
I got sunshine when I'm indoors
And I'm with you, yeah
There's a heatwave in the cold north
I got sunshine when I'm indoors
And I'm with you, yeah
There's a heatwave in the cold north
