

I Spy

Reverend and the Makers

Tell me, what are we doing here?
You control all my strings like a puppeteer
I'm a ship lost at sea but I'm yours to steer
An actor in your play

Tell me, what do you want from me?
I'm at your disposal as you can see
I'm but a leaf blowing in your breeze
A pawn in your game

I'd do anything for you
Pussycat, what's new?
I'd even spy for you

I spy for you
Hit me sudden like a heart attack (oh-oh)
I'm in too deep and there's no turning back
I spy for you
No one I know ever understands
The lengths we go to just please a woman

Ay-ay-ay...

You are the cause and the consequence
Yours to control from this moment, hence
I won't blink in the sunlight of your gaze
Those who don't bend will be certain to break

I'd do anything for you
Pussycat, what's new?
I'd even spy for you

I spy for you
Hit me sudden like a heart attack (oh-oh)
I'm in too deep and there's no turning back
I spy for you
No one I know ever understands
The lengths we go to just please a woman
