

Noisy Neighbour

Reverend and the Makers

I've got a noisy neighbour
The man who lives next door
Tonight we'll repay the favour
When we blast it through the wall

Pretty soon there's a knock at the door
And the Window Wobbler's shaking the walls
Turn my music way up loud
It's your turn, how you feeling now?

I've got a noisy neighbour
We don't see eye to eye
He hoovers up at 1am
But we'll drown him out tonight

Pretty soon there's a knock at the door
And the Window Wobbler's shaking the walls
Turn my music way up loud
It's your turn, how you feeling now?

So come on
(Yeah yeah)
So come on
(Yeah yeah)
Yeah come on
(Yeah yeah)
Come on

Tell my noisy neighbour
In the interest of a truce
To step right in to the party tune
Then again, just move

Pretty soon there's a knock at the door
As the Window Wobbler's shaking the walls
Turn my music way up loud
It's your turn, how you feeling now?

So come on
(Yeah yeah)
Come on
(Yeah yeah)
Yeah come on
(Yeah yeah)
Yeah come on
