

Nostalgia

Reverend and the Makers

We all love a little nostalgia
It isn't what it used to be
Tamagotchi, Trolls and Crocodile Dundee
We're mad for a little nostalgia
You say there's money in this
What fool would want to force the future now?

Lala lala lala lala lala lala la
Lala lala lala lala lala lala la

Give me, give me nostalgia
Give me, give me what I know
Give me Pop-Tarts, Love Hearts
Tab Clear see-through Coke
Dear old nostalgia, my old friend
We love it now, we hated it back then

Lala lala lala lala lala lala la
Lala lala lala lala lala lala la

Paperboy, Streets of Rage
Shabba Ranks, Ace of Base
No-one, now, can take the place of you
Rings for WWF, Mighty Ducks and BMX
You can ride it if you ask me to

Lala lala lala lala lala lala la
Lala lala lala lala lala lala la

Give me, give me nostalgia
Give me, give me what I know
Give me Pat Sharp's Fun House, Hawaii Five-O
Not into the future, not at it no more
All that could be done has been done before

Give me Rocky and gremlins, give me Bucky O'Hare
Give me something that I know well, give me Yogi Bear
Give me something from the 80s, give me Salt 'n' Shake
Give me, give me Terry Christian, give me roller blades

Lala lala lala lala lala lala la
Lala lala lala lala lala lala la