

Warts N All

Reverend and the Makers

Your profile pic divided by four equals your actual fitness
And what's more it's visual fraud if ya trade on a false description

No amount of snaps with your old fit mate
Where your mate looks shit and you look great could fool us

Are you showing me ya good side?
I wanna see you lookin' rough
Are you showing me ya good side?
'Cause I'd rather see you warts and all my love
Yeah, I'd rather see you warts and all my love

Your trout pout is bound to come out when you're posing for your pictures
You best hope that the wind don't change
You'll be left with a strange affliction
No amount of photos with your fit mate
Or "hey check me out" status updates could fool us

Are you showing me ya good side?
I wanna see you lookin' rough
Are you showing me ya good side?
'Cause I'd rather see you warts and all my love
Yeah, I'd rather see you warts and all my love

I wish that we could be, far across the sea
On a desert island in the sun
We'd never be apart, I'll love you just the way you are
And you'd have nothing to prove to anyone

Are you showing me ya good side?
I wanna see you looking rough
Are you showing me ya good side?
'Cause I'd rather see you warts and all my love

Are you showing me ya good side?
I wanna see you lookin' rough
Are you showing me ya good side?
'Cause I'd rather see you warts and all my love
Yes, I'd rather see you warts and all my love
