

Straight Jacket Labels

Revis

Words pierce through the air
They make you wear
To get you in a straight jacket label with your face
Turned to the wall

This place penetrates
When everyone that ever tries
To tell you that you're not the same
Watches you fall

You're pushing on the wall inside
You're pushing outside to find the reasons
You run from this place
When they label you

Pushing on the wall inside

Reasons to run from this place
When they label you

Pushing on the wall inside

You're inside

Thinking of everyone you ever knew
When they put you outside
In the separating wall
I can see you

Standing there waiting for the answer
To the reason no one operates the way you do
Your point of view

Every day that they can't see
Afraid of what they might find
In the way of what they see
Afraid of what's inside of you
