

Always

Revive

The sun on my shoulders
The wind in your hair
Although you don't see it
You know its there

God you're my God and I'm holding on to your love
It's so big I just can't get enough
When I fall down to my lowest point when
I cannot take it no more

If you get down you know I'm around always

Helpless and broken
I feel so alone
Think you don't know me
But you know my name
