

Invincible

Revnoir

Breaking into your head
I can hear you scream, I can feel you here
Suffocate in your sleep, thinking of me
But you won't talk about it
My breath on the back of your neck
Open your eyes, your heart beats louder, quick and sick

Anesthetized today, I won't be your fucking slave
The shadowed visions at the door
They won't invade my brain
Maybe If I try to drown them
It'll make the anguish go away
Even only for a day

Feels like it's just part of my fate now
To live a life muted by your hands
Reject, reset, no time for regrets
This is war, speak out loud (To be invincible)

So suffer your pain now
It's got to be drained out (To be invincible)
Chase off feelings that you buried in you
Make a way out through your voice

(Don't be a victim, be a threat)
(Don't be a victim, be a threat)
(Don't be a victim, be a threat)
(Don't be afraid)

I can feel it, I'm about to join the warzone
The storm approaching dictates the pace of my heart
Oh, You got in the way
And I've never been the same

I'm coming for you
I'll break you down, break me free
Slay the night beast with your words
The prey is about to kill now
I am invincible

So suffer your pain now
It's got to be drained out (To be invincible)
Chase off feelings that you buried in you
Make a way out through your voice

To be invincible, to be invincible
Make a way out through your voice
To be invincible, to be invincible
Make a way out through your voice
