

Night Terror

Revnoir

Wake up
Like a grip that locks your wrists
Just like a prison strapped to your sheets
Think of me when you drown in memories of abuse as you step into your bedroom
No, you can't just bury me, cause know that I am you and you are me
Blink once to see me, think twice to sleep cause I'm thrice the beast
You'll ever fucking be!
Another night where your thoughts are driven by a pill
You'll meet me halfway
No matter what, I'll stick around your bed
And while you're praying for tomorrow with a lullaby
I'll be making sure the past won't die
Wake up the pain inside

I became the Sandman of your dreams
The sound of a million silent screams
Crashing through your teeth

Don't pray for change
You gotta face yourself, yeah
Don't pray for change
You gotta face your hell

Blood filled with adrenaline
You crave to find the will to murder me
Go back to the day we met
Pull out your knife, hold it close to your chest

Ahh, pull it out
Go motherfucker, don't hold back

I became the Sandman of your dreams
The sound of a million silent screams
Crashing through your teeth

I'm the Sandman
You are mine
I'm the Sandman
You are mine
