

Buried Epoch

Revocation

Noxious clouds hang over head
Raining acid throughout the ruins
Abandoned planet
Ravaged of its resources and devoid of all life

When the All Seeing finally awoke
It was heralded as our messiah
Exponentially it gained self awareness and unleashed the Gemini Parasite

Never more
No raven shall fly
No forest will thrive
Nothing will survive
Not a trace of the human race will remain

Opponent unrivaled
All sentient lifeforms recalled and recycled
The Gemini Parasite brings only death
When the All Seeing finally awoke
It was worshipped just like a god
With fever and plague it sealed our fate
Unmaking our species as it replicates

Forgotten realm of the forsaken
Lost in time, buried epoch
Forgotten realm of the forsaken
Lost in time, buried epoch

Never more
No raven shall fly
No forest will thrive
Everything must die
Not a trace of the human race will remain
Unending desolation
The price for our consensual collective hallucinations
The last gasps of humanity vanish into the great cosmic silence

We sought to create a utopia
Led by principles extropian
Man-made man
Post human
Engineering our own ruin
Now disease runs rampant
Choking a dying planet
Global extinction set in motion
Pandora's box cannot be unopened

Moloch arise!
Bring forth the sacrifice
Growing high
The flames of our demise
By fire baptized

Moloch arise!
Growing high
The flames of our demise

By fire baptized
Perpetual blight
Unending night
Dawn of the parasite
