

The Intervening Abyss of Untold Aeons

Revocation

A pallid mist now rises through frigid corridors
A prophecy foretold by the sorcerer
The shadows out of time return to claim these lands
Casting infinite darkness upon the sons of man

A blighted twilight births a foreboding eclipse
Black clouds blot out the horizon

Sprawling cities once standing triumphant
Bow to its tenebrous might
History fading, all legacies lost
In this realm of undying night

Storms loom overhead as the cosmic maelstrom churns
The heavens howl with cacophonous thunder
Oceans drained into bottomless chasms, earthly kingdoms devoured
Feeding nihility's hunger

Clashing elementals
The origin of creation
Born of hellfire
And primordial frost

Sprawling cities once standing triumphant
Bow to its tenebrous might
History fading, all legacies lost
In this realm of undying night
Celestial upheaval
The resurgence of ultimate nothingness
The cosmos inhaled
Into the void of the yawning abyss
