

Edition

Rex Orange County

Baby you braved it
I understand you had a bad day and shit
So I say something dumb as fuck
And luckily it gives you a facelift
But really I couldn't take it
Especially when the volume is raising
Like, she came in the room
Chicane in the road
Now my mind is racing
You care too
Where to?
3 days in a row my plans fell through
Crying in a hotel room
You listen
If I could I'd be staying at the edition
(For real) For real
I would meet you at a certain time
And take my time and make my decision
For real
I'm only ever trying to help you (love)
It's only ever love (in a hotel room)
It's only ever love, babe
I'm only ever trying to help you (love)
It's only ever love, baby (in a hotel room)
It's only ever love
It's only ever trying to be loved in a hotel room
