

Finally

Rex Orange County

This heart is beating just to say something
Now I can't remember nothing
Working hard just to let it go
Life is good and I'm punching
Tryna give myself a break now
Saying nothing at the function
Tryna get back to who I am
Who I was before the discussions
Nowadays I'm on one
Checking in with my younger self
Finally feeling awesome
Settling into my own home
Finally feeling normal
I'ma make the most of being in my zone
Once again I'm on one
Now we're past the eruption
Eyes are wide and I'm en garde
Ready for anything at all
Wanting a home run
A Tec's story's over now
Fractions of all the time gone
Now I'm onto a different mode
Watch me as I go

In a minute I might be back again soon I hope
And my body wants to throw the towel in but I won't
I have faith in my ramblin'
I can finally see the man I am
Finally I'm home
I've finally let go
Finally let go
Yeah
Yeah
