

A Few More Reasons

Rexx Life Raj

What I got, I had to work for (Yeah)
You see me with it, I had to work for (Uh)
Go outside and get it out the dirt, Lord (Yeah)
And now we feel like we deserve more (Oh-oh, oh-oh)
So I'ma give you a few more reasons to be mad, if you mad (Uh)
You thought I was down but I bounce right back so
Here's a few more reasons to be mad, bitch, you mad, oh, ooh-
woah
(Niggas look mad)

Niggas mad because I'm brilliant, resilient
Life full of fulfillment
No matter the circumstance, I adapt like a chameleon
And I struggled, built it, was hurt then healed it
Looking for all the signs, pray that God will reveal it
Like show me all of the real lies (Show me all of the real lies
When it get dark, I need head light (Dark, I need head light)
Tryna get my family and my bread right (Family and my bread right)
Tryna get my spirit and my head right (Spirit and my head right
But I ain't scared of shit but the police
So come on, bitch, I'm ready
Feet on the pavement, we've been outside getting sweater
I can't fuck with niggas, they be way too deep in the netty
If I'm being honest, brother, you just in the way so you know
Niggas want to spend my bread but don't help me get no more
They don't be grateful when you do but it be selfish when you don't
You can't please everybody, I guess I should've know
But they act like they don't know

What I got, I had to work for (Yeah)
You see me with it, I had to work for (Uh)
