

State Of Mind

Rexx Life Raj

Even though I ain't rich
Bitch I'm rich, yeah
Bounce back, Michael Vick
On my shit, yeah
'Cause being broke is just a state of mind
That ain't my state of mind
What's mine is mine
Gonna take my time
Don't waste my time
If we ain't along
They don't wanna see me shine
Yeah, I'm still gon' shine
I got that work and I don't mind

I got the work, work, on god
Now I'm back on long
I got the work, work, on god
I got the work, work, on god
Now I'm back on long
I got the work, work, on god
Yeah, uh

Put it all in the universe
Still, it ain't gon' work if you don't work
Nobody wanna do the work
Fell on my face, look stupid first
Now I need 10k or I can't do the verse
She wanted Fendi and got the newest purse
My new accountant is hella Jewish
Fly to Peru and go see the ruins
I need my jewelry in full cue
I could be doing more than I'm doing
Hella hard on myself
Right, I'm only human
Study the game 'cause I'm a student
Niggas searching for everything but solutions
Turn on the TV and you see the revolution
We need more of them Huey Newtons
Ain't no cops here playing savior
They fire back when them niggas start shooting
It's a warzone where we come from
He run the block like he's Vladimir Putin
He had a scholly, but ain't have a father figure
He was supposed to go be a Bruin
Running them plays and running them streets
But no one is stopping him from being stupid
Look at the people that you influence
All the little homies that you do reach
I know that cool to rock all that designer
What's cooler is finding your inner peace
Your inner piece, aye
Then let it fall in line
Can't put no price tag on that
On god

Even though I ain't rich
Bitch I'm rich, yeah

Bounce back, Michael Vick
On my shit, yeah
'Cause being broke is just a state of mind
That ain't my state of mind
What's mine is mine
