I'm just doing everything they told me that I couldn't
Watch me run the game and I will never lose my footing
She like a chocolate nigga cause the proof is in the pudding
They label me a criminal by looking at my skin
Ima young, black business owner, homie come again?
Know that all that hating on me make me wanna win
I wrote shit n floss just to shit on you and all your friends
Now I'm back at it again, bounce in the Uber
With all of my niggas we'll get an excel to make sure we fit
5 stars for the gum and the water, my nigga we lit
People be talking more than they be doin shit, I ain't convinced
Everything you do is all for the 'gram, fuck all the pictures

I've been O.T., like it's overtime
You rocking with me or you not it ain't no borderline
I be tripping off the stupid shit they glorify
I took a trip around the world I know there's more to life
I tell her baby hold it down for me til I get home
It still be hard for me to trust that every time I'm gone
I just keep on showing love and it'll come back around
Father figure giving game like a hand-me-down
TSA, say she love my music, when she cat me down
Well she love me just a little more when you don't pat me down
LOL, laugh out loud, I'm just laughing cause this shit absurd
You grew up a motherfucking nerd, what you trapping now?
They know that Faraji put in word, if you ask around
All my prices on the Uber surge, bitch I'm taxing now
Tell them pay up, nigga pay up
This shit is easy as a layup

I've been jooging, I've been jooging, I've been jooging
How I'm shining now it's hard to overlook it
I did my own thing, look at where it took him
I've been jooging, I've been jooging, I've been jooging
