

All I Ever Do

REYKO

I've been trying to tell you for a while
I'm just trying to find the perfect time
I'm staying away from pictures and all that
I'm trying to make it old school
And look you in the eyes and say

All I ever do
Is think about you
All I ever do
Is think about you
When I close my eyes
All I see is your gorgeous smile
All I ever do
Is think about you

I'm just sick of staring at the screen
Feel like screaming naked down the street
I hope you don't accuse me of being insane
If I just make it old school
And show up at your door and say

All I ever do
Is think about you
All I ever do
Is think about you
When I close my eyes
All I see is your gorgeous smile
All I ever do
Is think about you

All I ever do
Is think about you
All I ever do
Is think about you
When I close my eyes
All I see is your gorgeous smile
All I ever do
Is think about you
