

Already There

REYKO

People ask
Where you see yourself in a year or two?
People ask
Where you wanna be, what you want to do?
People ask
Where you're gonna go, don't you have a plan?
The answer is the same as it ever was
Yes, it is the same as it ever was

We are going nowhere
'Cause we are already there
If we're together there's no need to look elsewhere
'Cause we are already there

People dare
Telling us to jump on some kind of race
People dare
Asking us to look for some perfect place
All we hear
Is who we should be and what we should do
You and I
Will never go down that route
No we'll never ever go down that route

We are going nowhere
'Cause we are already there
If we're together there's no need to look elsewhere
'Cause we are already there

The answer is the same as it ever was
It'll always be the same anytime we are asked

We are going nowhere
'Cause we are already there
If we're together there's no need to look elsewhere
'Cause we are already there
