

Maybe

REYKO

We've been circling with no direction
Now we're stuck in this situation
And we can't get out of it
We can't get out of it

Every time that I raise the question
All I get is your hesitation
And I can't take more of it
I can't take more of it

Tell me how would it make you feel
Tell me how would it make you feel

Well, maybe you wake up in the morning and face it
That everything you had will be wasted
Cause I'll be far away
Well, maybe you wake up in the morning and face it
You never will be able to change it
Cause I'll be far away

I keep hearing the same old story
Everything you say it's always blurry
And I'm so over it
I'm so over it

Tell me how would it make you feel
Tell me how would it make you feel

Well, maybe you wake up in the morning and face it
That everything you had will be wasted
Cause I'll be far away
Well, maybe you wake up in the morning and face it
You never will be able to change it
Cause I'll be far away

Tell me how would it make you feel
How would it make you feel

Well, maybe you wake up in the morning and face it
That everything you had will be wasted
Cause I'll be far away
Well, maybe you wake up in the morning and face it
You never will be able to change it
Cause I'll be far away
Far away
