

Set You Free

REYKO

One two three four
Close your eyes and let it go
And when the hesitation is gone
No counting anymore
Five, six, seven, eight
There is no need to be afraid
Maybe you are wondering how?
But soon you will feel also
So count till three
Tell me what you feel
Tell me what you thinking
I am here just to set you free
Count to me when you are crying
And I am wipe all your tears
Count to me when you feel
You're slowly drowning
I am here just to set you free
You you you you you
You you you you you
Just to set you free
You you you you you
