

The Game

REYKO

Oh, how I wish somebody joined me for the game
Oh, how I wish somebody joined me for the game
Oh, how I wish somebody joined me for the game
I wish somebody played with me before it gets too late

I know this is my last destination
I'm craving little more recreation
If only I could find what I came for
The ticking clock just makes me impatient

Bit by bit, it's slipping by
While a I'm trying to reach new highs
Bit by bit, it's slipping by
While I try to freeze the time

Oh, how I wish somebody joined me for the game
Oh, how I wish somebody joined me for the game
Oh, how I wish somebody joined me for the game
I wish somebody played with me before it gets too late

I know I'm getting closer and closer
To not needing to keep my composure
Cause that's the reason why I came this far
The clock keeps ticking over and over

Bit by bit, it's slipping by
While a I'm trying to reach new highs
Bit by bit, it's slipping by
While I try to trick the time

I won't give up until I find
I won't give up until I find
I won't give up until I find
Until I find the perfect type

Oh, how I wish somebody joined me for the game
Oh, how I wish somebody joined me for the game
Oh, how I wish somebody joined me for the game
I wish somebody played with me before it gets too late
