

Not Enough

Rezz

When I die, will it be enough
For you to remember me in the way that I wanted?
When you don't wanna go outside
You know I'll stay with you in the dark forever
Covering something that shouldn't be
And people still complain, are you ashamed of yourself?
Maybe now we can remember why
We got here in the first place

I don't need blood
Not like my broken heart
I never let you out, it's not enough for me
Am I enough to grieve?

When you cry, do you look in the mirror?
I see you've changed, maybe I changed too
Let me down and you lead the way
And then step on my neck, bad luck forever
When I die, try not to think about
All the mess I've made, 'cause it's so hard not to Let me down in the misty haze
So I can be alone

I don't need blood
Not like my broken heart
I never let you out, it's not enough for me (For me, for me)
Am I enough to grieve? (To be)
I don't need blood
My broken heart
I never let you out, it's not enough for me (For me, for me)
Am I enough to grieve? (To be, to be)
I don't need blood
Not like my broken heart
I never let you out, it's not enough for me (For me, for me)
Am I enough to grieve? (To be, to be)
