

Holy Downfall

Rhapsody of Fire

Fear my wings
Hear my scream
Embrace my claws
Taste your blood

The age of the war has begun
To my roar, the world falls down at my feet
Since I have learned I'm the one
All my fears have faded
Beware! My sword's out for blood

Fear thy king
Hear my scream
No place to hide
Taste your lies

Two wizards and two different faiths
Black and white, two champions soon will collide
The magic flows in our veins
All I knew is a falsehood
Beware! I cry out for truth

Holy downfall, wash my soul
Cleanse me, for I'm the one
I'm begging you: hear my war cry
The dark left the place to light
Holy downfall, wash my soul
Cleanse me, for I'm the one
I swear that it'll be worthwhile
The victory has a price

Here's the turning point
Be brave, release your mask!
Guardians of the sky
Have shown me the space and time
To reclaim your empire

Holy downfall, wash my soul
Cleanse me, for I'm the one
I'm begging you: hear my war cry!
The dark left the place to light
Holy downfall, wash my soul
Cleanse me, for I'm the one
I swear that it'll be worthwhile
The victory has a price, a price!
