

Kreel's Magic Staff

Rhapsody of Fire

This revelation will change all I knew from the past
Show me the secret untold
Mighty Terial, you always know where to go

May your voice be thunderous
To cast a soul-estranging spell
The magic signs that shine in you
May unleash the power within your magic staff

Soon every unspoken word sounds like a miracle
Once every letter has been imposed everything's magical
Behold Terial growing up, towering over the trees
Spreading the wings of eternity

The secret relic I hold now is inflamed, since the rite has begun
The gently shimmering woods
And the snow-covered plain are lit up by the moon

May your heart embrace my soul
Release your darkest inner fear
The magic signs that shine in you
May unleash the power within your spirit

Soon every unspoken word sounds like a miracle
Once every letter has been imposed everything's magical
Behold Terial growing up, towering over the trees
Spreading the wings of eternity

May your voice be thunderous
To cast a Soul-Estranging spell
The magic signs that shine in you
May unleash the power within your soul, this is your fate

Soon every unspoken word sounds like a miracle
Once every letter has been imposed everything's magical
Behold Terial growing up, towering over the trees
Spreading the wings of eternity

Soon every unspoken word sounds like a miracle
Once every letter has been imposed everything's magical
Behold Terial growing up, towering over the trees
Spreading the wings of eternity
