

Son of Vengeance

Rhapsody of Fire

Carrying the weight of the world
Dark is the night 'til the break of the dawn
Suffering for innocents' pain
This horrible stain that runs in my veins

Fear me I'm under control
Eighth mountain power's feeding my soul
I've been betrayed by the fire
Slave to the grind of the Nephilim empire

He's Kreel: the son of vengeance
Into the darkness through the rivers of time
Cursed by my lord in the fire prison
Into the darkness, through the deepest unknown
The hands of the hero are killing prophets
Slain for wasted hopes and illusions

Carrying the weight of the world
Dark is the night 'til the break of the dawn
Suffering for innocent's pain
This horrible stain that runs in my veins

My Lord, I choose the wrong side
Blinded by power, I lost my new bride
Tears for these oceans of blood
Disorder and riots, rebellion of God

He's Kreel: the son of vengeance
Into the darkness through the rivers of time
Cursed by my lord in the fire prison
Into the darkness, through the deepest unknown
The hands of the hero are killing prophets
Slain for wasted hopes and illusions

Cause I know the place where I belong
Like the heart of the sun
A hell with no return
And the blame now falls like pouring rain
And the thousand sins of my life are calling me
Cause I fell from grace
Beware of me... don't call my name!

Oh you better fear me, I'm a slayer for hire
My fate is sealed by the Lord of the fire
Wearing the punisher's hood
I kill for my prize and I'm coming for you!

He's Kreel: the son of vengeance
Into the darkness through the rivers of time
Cursed by my lord in the fire prison
Into the darkness, through the deepest unknown
The hands of the hero are killing prophets
Slain for wasted hopes and illusions
