

Long Long Long

Miller, Rhett

This ain't love, but it ain't bad
When you'll leave, I'll be sad, sad, sad
Long, long, long, you are and I do
Though it's wrong, wrong, wrong
I'm gonna long for you
Lay, lay, lay your head right here
Won't you stay, stay, stay
A little while longer, my dear

This ain't love, but it ain't bad
When you'll leave, I'll be sad, sad, sad
There's something else, something I ain't had
When you'll leave, I'll be sad, sad, sad
Bye, bye, bye, it's so hard to say
I'm gonna cry, cry, cry
And let that old song play

No-no-no-body knows my pain
I've got your long long ledge
Running around my brain
Try, try, try, to tell the truth
Honey, why why why
Must I long for you?

This ain't love (this ain't love)
But it ain't bad (but it ain't bad)
When you'll leave, I'll be sad, sad, sad
There's something else, something I ain't had
When you'll leave, I'll be sad, sad, sad
Yeah when you'll leave, I'll be sad, sad, sad

Long, long, long, you are and I do
Though it's wrong, wrong, wrong
I'm gonna long for you
I'm gonna long for you
