

Can't Break Me

Rhett Walker Band

Here we go again, the devil's at my door
Trying to get in, to steal my soul
All I know is something's 'bout to break
This ol' heart is screaming out

You can come against me but you won't get far
It's plain to see just who you are
You had me once but now I'm free
So go on hit the road 'cause you can't break me

Oh, what is this, creeping up my spine
Giving me the shivers, I'm running out of time
All I know is something's bound to break
These dry bones are crying out

Oh, take this fear, take this pain
Oh, help me to see
'Cause the weight of the world
Is on my shoulders
Something's gotta break
