

Don't Cry

Rhodes

There's pain in all our history
Our future lies in mystery
The ocean pounds in ecstasy
As I lose the ground beneath my feet

Treading water out too deep
The waves begin to carry me
So softly as she speaks to me
Saying I can't swim, I can't breathe
Ooh
Ooh

As she begs to fly here endlessly
I've seen the light
I've seen the dream
Hallucinating next to me
The siren of my reverie
As she pulls me out before she leaves
And I thought I'd be holding her forever (Oh)

I sit and watch it all just fade away
Don't cry
Don't cry
We move beyond the feelings we can't face
Don't cry
Don't cry

I sit and watch it all just fade away
I, I
I sit and watch it all just fade away
I, I
I sit and watch it all just fade away

Ooh, ooh, ooh
