The clock is ticking all your satisfaction
She told me
The clock is ticking all your satisfaction

We can paint the passion
Or create distractions
Go to bed hungry
Wake up and make it happen
I can't erase what happen
My unfaithful actions
Wit fake attractions
Ok mistakes will happen
Ok I take the blame
I'm looking dumb
Create a caption
She like 'Boy, what's yo problem?'
Baby thanks for asking
Ihada20citytour
That's a lotta practice
I had a chick that gave me everything in Calabasas
It's hard to stay at home and have a love that's everlasting
My mom and daddy had a love
That was never lasting
I'm tryna learn to love
I would pay for classes
I'm tryna straighten up the wheel before I 'skirt'
And crash it
You're the moon
You're the stars
You're my main attraction
When we was walkin'
Wit lions I knew big things would happen
The jungle brought us closer
Your father called us over
We was married in blood ties
This la costra nostra
The sun rising in Senegal is a perfect poster
That's why I had to take you there
We standing on their shoulders
Took you to Cody, he told me we could walk on boulders
We was parting oceans
We was taking potions
Sun tans in Yucatan baby
Pass the lotion
Lay your head on my chest
Ohh, my heart is open
How you deal wit his mess
Ohh, a lotta copin'
A lotta prayin' the Father, Son
We Holy Ghostin!

Ain't nothing greater than my Creator
My Creator

(My Creator)
My Creator
(My Creator)

I take accountability for tryna change you
Assumed the role of God that ain't my job
So what's my angle
Guess I know just what I wanted, when I wanted what I see
Is your potential but we wasn't ready
Baby that's on me, I made mistakes too
Played up in yo' face too
I had to learn to love myself and let go of the past cuz now that ain't you no more
Are we done taking score and placing blame
If I cannot extend no grace then I am not who all I claim to be Ohh baby, if you ain't wit me, I need you around
I forgave you for them days you was doin' me foul
And I forgave you for those days that you couldn't provide Looking back now I can see how that was eating your pride
We been through everything together no this bond can never sever
When I'm layin' on your chest you gotta know it ain't no pressure
This love
Though this bond is not near perfect we can say that we're us
Let's leave the past up in the past don't give a damn bout what it was
What it was
Let's leave the past up in the past cuz I can really care less bout what it was

There's something, because all I know that works in the world is a relations hip
It takes 2 people to have a relationship if you don't have a dream fake it
You got to fake it

You can't fake a dream

You got to fake it because we don't have dreams these days. How the hell can you have a dream, for what?
Everybody's jivin', well let's jive on that level

If I love you, I can't lie to you

Of course, you can lie to me and you will
If you love me and you're goin' off with Mattie someplace you're lying to me
, cuz what the hell do I care about the truth I care if you're there, what B illie holiday say? Hush now don't explain
