

Bloodstains

Rhys Lewis

Now I got bloodstains
I get a kick I can't explain
Your love's so bitter but I like the taste
Your love's so bitter but it's sweet that way

Hold me like a fever
No, I'll never leave ya
Lie and I believe every word
Baby you're a devil
Burning me in heaven
There's pleasure in the pain but it hurts

It's kinda love and it's kind of a war
These kinda laws never cut me before

And now I got bloodstains
I get a kick I can't explain
Your love's so bitter but I like the taste
Your love's so bitter but it's sweet that way

(Your love's so beautiful)
(Your love's so beautiful)
(Your love's so beautiful)

Maybe I'm defenseless
Maybe it's a death wish
But tell me, tell me what can I do
'Cause when you smile you look so harmless
But girl you can be so heartless
And I'm caught up in the darkness with you

It's kinda love and it's kind of a war
These kinda laws never cut me before

And now I got bloodstains
I get a kick I can't explain
Your love's so bitter but I like the taste
Your love's so bitter but it's sweet that way

(Your love's so beautiful)
(Your love's so beautiful)

So pick me up, throw me down
Put me back to pieces
Pick me up, throw me down
Love me then repeat it
So pick me up, throw me down
Put me back to pieces
Pick me up, throw me down

Now I got bloodstains
But I get a kick I can't explain
Your love's so bitter but I like the taste
Your love's so bitter but it's sweet that way
Your love's so bitter but I like the taste
Your love's so bitter but it's sweet that way
It's sweet that way

(Your love's so beautiful)
(Your love's so beautiful)
(Your love's so beauti-)
