

Over You

Rhys

I go out another night
Give some other guy a try
But he'll never be better
Right when I think I'm doing fine
Then it hits me from behind
That I'll never get better

You know I heard that you stopped grinding your teeth
Was it all because of me? Did I give you anxiety?
I really hope I just need another week
Then I'll find some inner peace, maybe I can quit therapy

'Cause I'm okay but I have bad days when
I just can't ignore the truth, I'll never get over you
I don't care, just a little bit scared that
Even with somebody new, I'll never get over you

Even with somebody new, I'll never get over you
Even with somebody new, I'll never get over you

I see your name across my screen
Feel the wave of self-esteem
For a second it's better
I'm trying hard not to compare
How I'd feel if you were here
It would probably be better

You know I heard that you finally shaved your hair
Was it all because of me? Did I give you anxiety?
I really hope I just need another week
And I'll find the missing piece that you took from inside of me

'Cause I'm okay but I have bad days when
I just can't ignore the truth, I'll never get over you
I don't care, just a little bit scared that
Even with somebody new, I'll never get over you

Even with somebody new, I'll never get over you
Even with somebody new, I'll never get over you
