

Spite My Flaws

Rhys

Speak, tell me what you think
Say, say what's on your mind
I see it in your eyes boy, you're scared
Is it something that I said? Mmh

But you know I can only be the one I am
Can't put a circle in a square

I'm not a fan of holding grudges, I don't wanna fight
But I really really really, really really really don't like
All those bad compromises
I just hate, hate surprises
I don't care what any guy says
Spite my flaws, I'm irreplaceable

You, you know I'm no saint
But I try to be one every day

But you know I can only be the one I am
Can't put a circle in a square

I'm not a fan of holding grudges, I don't wanna fight
But I really really really, really really really don't like
All those bad compromises
I just hate, hate surprises
I don't care what any guy says
Spite my flaws, I'm irreplaceable

(Say, tell me what you [?])
Spite my flaws
Spite my flaws
(Say, say what's on your mind)
Spite my flaws
Spite my flaws

I'm not a fan of holding grudges, I don't wanna fight
But I really really really, really really really don't like
All those bad compromises
I just hate, hate surprises
I don't care what any guy says
Spite my flaws, I'm irreplaceable

(Say, tell me what you [?])
Spite my flaws
(Say, say what's on your mind)
Spite my flaws
