

Starfish

Rhys

I like to live in the memories
'Cause baby that's where you are
When I can't handle reality
I wanna be where you are

Daydreaming
Daydreaming
Under crying skies
Everything is better here
When I close my eyes

We're picking starfish in the shallow waters
Dancing shadows on your brown skin in the sun
Every word you say has magic powers
Hold me baby, feel my heartbeat come undone
Hold me baby, feel my heartbeat come undone
Come undone, come undone
Hold me baby, feel my heartbeat come undone

(Yeah)
People tell me that I'm ignorant and blue eyed
That I live in denial
But honestly what's wrong with blurring all the edges?
And feeling good for awhile?

Daydreaming
Daydreaming
Under crying skies
Everything is better here
When I close my eyes

We're picking starfish in the shallow waters
Dancing shadows on your brown skin in the sun
Every word you say has magic powers
Hold me baby, feel my heartbeat come undone
Hold me baby, feel my heartbeat come undone
Come undone, come undone
Hold me baby, feel my heartbeat come undone

You know you left me barely breathing
Everything was gone (yeah)
But when I see you when I'm dreaming I keep holding on
To every minute, every second that I spend with you (with you)
Only pictures in my messed up mind will see me through (feel my heartbeat come undone)

You know you left me barely breathing
Everything was gone
But when I see you when I'm dreaming I keep holding on
To every minute, every second that I spend with you
Only pictures in my messed up mind will see me through
