

You'll Never Know

Rhys

Pretty skies fade to gray
Let the rain wash my sins away
Got a sign on my door
Sayin' you don't belong here anymore
Times we have tried
Left a big empty space inside
Feel my eyes overflow
But I won't let it show, you'll never know
Feel my eyes overflow
But I won't let it show, you'll never know

Pretty nights erased
All the bad memories replaced
Once the hate is coolin' down
Write a brand new story
I've been hurt real bad
But I'm not sorry, just sad

Pretty skies fade to gray
Let the rain wash my sins away
Got a sign on my door
Sayin' you don't belong here anymore
Times we have tried
Feel my eyes overflow
But I won't let it show, you'll never know
Feel my eyes overflow
But I won't let it show, you'll never know

Tell the truth, it's okay
Don't you know you'll hurt me less that way?
Once the hate is coolin' down
We will see things clearly
And you will understand
That I'm not sorry, just sad

Pretty skies fade to gray
Let the rain wash my sins away
Got a sign on my door
Sayin' you don't belong here anymore
Times we have tried
Feel my eyes overflow
But I won't let it show, you'll never know

If you come close to me
There's something you might see
A little piece of me
A little piece of me
Some things I can't reveal
The things I feel
If you're so real

Pretty skies fade to gray
Got a sign on my door

Times we have tried
Feel my eyes overflow
Feel my eyes overflow
