

Stop. Rewind. Begin.

Ria Mae

Why are you yelling?
I think that I might cry if I start
To talk to you
So I listen as you tear me apart

Please come home hand on heart
I swear I've changed and I swear I forgot
Countless days spent in the dark
Please come home
You all the facts[?] then my words stop at your skin
You all this constant pull to stop rewind begin

Someone told me now let you go, let you go
Still I can't run, run run run
Lied myself to be knocked down and not climb back
Is all I've done wrong

Please come home hand on heart
I swear I've changed and I swear I forgot
Countless days spent in the dark
Please come home
You all the facts[?] then my words stop at your skin
You all this constant pull to stop rewind begin

Please please please

Please come home hand on heart
I swear I've changed and I swear I forgot
Helpless days spent in the dark
Please come home
You all the facts[?] then my words stop at your skin
You all this constant pull to stop
