

Keep All That

Rich Amiri

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Baby, you can keep all that
All that, yeah, yeah, yeah
Baby, you can keep all of that
Keep all of that

And all of your stress and drunk texts and missed calls
You can keep all of that (Bae, you can keep it, bae)
And I miss the sex and your scent and your touch
But bae, I don't need it, baby (I don't, yeah)
I'm calling your phone, let me know when you're home
And I'll come see you, baby (Yeah, yeah, I'll come)
And none of these hoes never gettin' my heart
'Cause it beats for you, baby (Oh, oh)

Just play your part and we'll be straight (Yeah, yeah)
Play your part and we'll be fine
I don't wanna waste your time
I've been thinking like maybe we should (Have some fun, some fun)
(Maybe we should have some fun, some fun)

And all of your stress and drunk texts and missed calls
You can keep all of that (Bae, you can keep it, bae)
And I miss the sex and your scent and your touch
But bae, I don't need it, baby (I don't, yeah)
I'm calling your phone, let me know when you're home
And I'll come see you, baby (Yeah, yeah, I'll come)
And none of these hoes never gettin' my heart
'Cause it beats for you, baby (Baby, you can keep all of that)
