

Later Not Bye

Rich Amiri

I ain't try, yeah
I ain't try, try, try, try

Can't say I ain't try, I can't lie
Baby, I need some time, damn
And you askin', "Why?"
Need some space, but that don't mean bye (Bye)
(Need some space, but that don't mean bye)

And I'm writing you this letter, this letter for you
Baby, keep your head up when I'm gone, know I'm ready for you
These hoes will never feel like home, but it's steady with you
Then you get mad, start throwing phones, yeah, that's petty of you
You fuck with broke boys, oh my God, I can never love you
Keep it real, I can never trust you, I can never put no one above you
Told me that you really fell in love, just being honest, I fell in love too
Lately, it's been lookin' like a dub, but we both know I could never dub you
You gotta tell me what's up, keep it real, I'ma be out of love soon
Guess I was never enough, damn
Guess I was never enough

Can't say I ain't try, I can't lie
Baby, I need some time, damn
And you askin', "Why?"
Need some space, but that don't mean bye
