

Moving Dumb

Rich Amiri

Now I see what it is, but I miss what it was
It ain't no turning back, I know this what I'm made for Livin' just like a movie, I just went and wrapped the Range Rover

I do what I want and all you do is what you came for
I'm a million dollar nigga and I don't play about my bankroll
Got princess cuts for my only one, just so she blinged up
It's time to eat, not even a crumb of money on the table
Woke up to another check, I'm so blessed, how your day go?

Yeah, I won't pick and choose, all these hoes my favorite Yeah, blowin' exotic, all the cars robotic, ain't none basic Got some boys still in the system and that shit been drivin' me crazy

Hit a pint with drugs, my system full of medication
You been movin' dumb, I can't roll with you no more, yeah
Shawty fucked a rapper, can't be seen with you no more, yeah
I took four pills, might die If I do one more, yeah
Hit the gas and I made the two-door float, yeah
Almost lost my mind fuckin' with these stupid hoes
She on go for every nigga, I know I shouldn't have put her on LaFerrari in that Testarossa, look how fast it go
We the money team, they some broke boys, yeah, we laugh at those

Keep your head up young nigga, I see your blessing coming soon, oh-oh

Yeah, I had these riches for a while, this shit nothing new

Now I see what it is, but I miss what it was
It ain't no turning back, I know this what I'm made for
Livin' just like a movie, I just went and wrapped the Range Rover

I do what I want and all you do is what you came for
I'm a million dollar nigga and I don't play about my bankroll
Got princess cuts for my only one, just so she blinged up
It's time to eat, not even a crumb of money on the table
Woke up to another check, I'm so blessed, how your day go?
