Rich Amiri

X8

Yeah, yeah

Yeah, yeah-yeah

Yeah, yeah-yeah

Yeah

I need it right now, I feel defeated right now

Just wanna see you right now, yeah

And I'm dying right now, feel like I'm flying right now

Don't let the fire die out, oh, oh

And I promise I'll be there, I'll be there for you

Don't get why I feel like, I been needing you

I patched up my heart and I gave it to you

Then you took my heart and you split it in two

So, I guess I'm done with with you

Yeah, I guess I'm number two

Don't know how I was so stupid to fall in love with you

But I won't do that again, I got way too comfortable

Sike, I'll do it all again, guess it's time to make yo' move

Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh

Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh

I took that ho to Belize, I took that ho to the moon

Say that she rockin' with me, why she ain't chillin' with you

Say that she got a nigga, I guess I'm killin' your boo

Take that boy out the picture, yeah, I'm killin' him too

And I want it, I swear that I want it right now

And I'm calling, do you hear me calling right now?

I need it right now, I feel defeated right now

Just wanna see you right now, yeah

Don't let the fire die out, oh, oh

And I promise I'll be there, I'll be there for you

Don't get why I feel like, I been needing you

I patched up my heart and I gave it to you

Then you took my heart and you split it in two

Split it in two

So

So, I guess I'm done with you, done

Guess I'm done with you
