

DOA

Rich Brian

Now I'm up, now I'm up
You're too far away
It's that DOA
Now I'm up, and you're stuck
And I know you hate it
It's that DOA

I guess I'm just too busy livin'
Revvin' up my engine
Hope it don't offend you, eh, eh
I bet you'll never catch me sleepin'
What's the use of dreamin'?
They already came true, eh, eh

Clear water in Laguna, ooh, oh
I'm reflectin', and I wish you'd do the same
Sorry that I didn't pick up
I was livin', yeah, my routine hasn't changed

I'm in the 818, don't take no breaks
Pushin' the Type R down the PCH
I'm in my shelter, I don't feel afraid
We could live forever

Now I'm up, now I'm up
You're too far away
It's that DOA
Now I'm up, and you're stuck
And I know you hate it
It's that DOA

All these different drinks, man
It's safe to say that I'm fadin'
My brain is workin', but my body's still on vacation
Nights like this could make the brightest days overrated
Never liked the sunlight anyway

I'm still in the 818, don't take no breaks
Pushin' the Type R down the PCH
I'm in my shelter, I don't feel afraid
We could live forever

Now I'm up, now I'm up
You're too far away
It's that DOA
Now I'm up, and you're stuck
And I know you hate it
It's that DOA

I guess I'm just too busy livin'
Revvin' up my engine
Hope it don't offend you, eh, eh
I bet you'll never catch me sleepin'
What's the use of dreamin'?
They already came true, eh, eh

Oh, I know you said it wasn't that hard

But I'd love to see you take it that far
