

Bout That Life

Rich Homie Quan

Yeah

Yeah

You might talk that life, but you ain't really bout it
You should've seen that price on that A-A-Audi
Imma live my life my life so stay the fuck up out it
I ain't into interviews, I ain't with the talkin'
Mama said "Stay on the porch" if you ain't bout that life
Why the hell you still calling plug
Like you bout that life
I bought a mirror just to face the truth
You ain't bout that life
Therefore find yourself something safe to do

I'm bout that life (Okay)
Kill a nigga all day
I might tie him up
Beat him with that ball bat
Struggle nigga 9-1-1 Cause you in trouble nigga
You wanna go to war
Grab the rope we could tuggle nigga
Blowing nothing but this bubble nigga
Smoking Keisha till the trouble comes
She gotta choice, Take hard dick then bubble gum
I be running with some killers
Down with some niggas you've never heard of
I be running thru the thick of your plug pull you deserve us
I'm the man god damn god damn I am
I got a bag and a van
In the move we don't need a middle man
She threw a subtweet, You know I caught it
