

Sometimes

Rich The Kid

For my son, whom I love
I want him to have abundance of love, peace
And infinite wisdom to make an impact in the world
I pray that the holy spirit protect and guide him throughout his journey

Damn, I wish I wasn't famous sometimes
Knew that I would be a rapper, I was only nine
Remember when I made a mil' for the first time
Had to stack them rackies, pay my taxes
Now I'm CEO, I'm in another bracket
I sleep with a chopper since they caught me lackin'
He might end up missin' he play with the backend
Might get sad, I ain't cryin', I miss Virgil all the time
I'd do anything for my brothers, that's on God, I ain't lyin'
I see you pussy, I ain't blind
P, that's for power, I know I got 'em sour
Fuck a lil' bitch and she might get a money shower

Sometimes
Wish that I could press a button and go back in time
I been ridin' with the Rondo like I'm NumbaNine
They ask me if I'm really happy, nigga, sometimes

Sometimes I don't wanna be a rapper, just be me
We wanted to live the life they didn't wanna see
Sometimes I wanna ride with the top down
Gotta ride with a hundred rounds
Nigga played, it turned to chopper town

'Cause niggas be hatin'
'Cause my pockets, they be thick like Yellow Pages
If she say she fuck with me, she upgraded
Sometimes I think about them nights that we had barely made it
I know you keep callin' my phone, but I'm gone, baby
Six figures for the show in Vegas
She ain't worried about her bills, I paid it
Goin' to the mall, I'm too famous
I done ran it up, life too crazy
Got more rings than Tom Brady
Got more rings than Tom Brady

This is us from the street
From the street to this
This is really us from the street to this
Five or six guys that came from nothin'
We just put our brains together
And I'm doin' this with my family, you know what I'm sayin'?
I mean, like, these are still my friends at the end of the day
Whoever I'm workin' with

With the guidance of God
Your soul and family
You gon' be successful
When I grow up, I wanna do that
