

Fater

Richard Buckner

Leave and travel well
Leave yourself and live to tell
And I hope your heart will travel well

The moon will send you back
I prayed this night would never pass
But I knew the moon would send you back

Careful of our years
I cried and fought my worst of fears
Now I'm frightened of our years

I'll keep your name deep within Fighter fater faker and sin is the name I've take deep within
I saw such light in you
Crushed by the basement view
The night I lost my light in you

Leave...
