

Roll

Richard Buckner

We could rent a car tomorrow and roll through all the thoughts we keep.
But we'll just end up dishevelled and acting like we both don't know.
But as I go down please take care.

Let's go to Puerto Alegre and roll back to the bottom again.
Maybe sleep away the bitter or spin out under better days.
But as I go down please take care.

Is your armor ever heavy? Would you roll a lil secret too?
Just twinkle and a false start. Do you want a smoke or just a spark?
Yeah, as I go down please take care.
