

Moonwrapped

Richard Edwards

Skinny little beach bum, flowers in your crown
Where are you? I need you now
Huckleberry hoodrat, pocketful of frowns
Well, I found you and I kept you safe and sound
Why do you love me? I think you're insane
I've been seein' things that I cannot explain
I cannot explain, honey

Seen the moon wrapped around you
I'm happy livin' in a dream
We been stitched at the hip
Why you pickin' at the seams?
With the moon wrapped around you...

Hey, Jelly, don't cry
'Cause in the next life, there ain't no stomachs
And love don't die, it moves through time
(Forever) Where it's always true

Seen the moon wrapped around you
What the fuck you gonna do?
Have I been wearin' you down, my baby blue?
With eyes like smoke and lungs on fire...

Seen the moon wrapped...
Seen the moon wrapped around you...
Seen the moon wrapped around you...
I loved you, I always do
