

Whatever We Started

Richard Marx

Hang up the phone, I'm alone
I'll unlock the door
Slip in, let all your clothes just fall off you to the floor
Don't even make a sound or turn your mind around
There is only now.. for me and you

We cant stop whatever we started
Can't resist what's meant to be
Forget whatever we promised
I want you all over me
Let's do it now, don't think
Look in my eyes and don't blink
We can't stop whatever we started

Come over and I'll put my hands where I want to End of the bed with my scent still left on you
Baby don't pretend,
Could ever just be friends
After I have been.. inside of you

We cant stop whatever we started
Can't resist what's meant to be
Forget whatever we promised
I want you all over me
Let's do it now and don't think
Look in my eyes and don't blink
We can't stop whatever we started

Hang up the phone
I'm all alone
I'll unlock the door...

We cant stop whatever we started
(HohhhhhOhhhOhhh!)
Can't resist what's meant to be
Forget whatever we promised
(HohhhOhhhhhOhhhh!)
I want you all over me
(All over)
Let's do it now and don't think
Look in my eyes and don't blink
(And don't...and don't)
We can't stop whatever we started

(HohhhOhhhOhhhh!)
(HohhhOhhhhhOhhh!)
