

Smile & Wave

Richgirl

If you in the spot?
You can do this
Put your hands up top to the music
Just wave, wave, wave
Just wave, wave, wave

Hey pretty lady what's your name
Got a pretty little body, I just wanna say
Do you have some time for you to come play
And baby I know the perfect place

Hold up, wait little daddy
Think that's the way to get at me?
There ain't no need to go on and on

What do you mean I'm going on and on

Boy I know your trying to get in my jeans
Be a cold day in hell, that's not happening

But I, I just came for love, girl that ain't me hold up (ain't trying to beg for none)
Girl I know other guys they're not quite like me,
Don't know how to do good and treat you right like me
But I will...

Boy your not gonna get my Let's see how far you gon get Ain't no other guy been there yet
I usually smile and wave, wave, wave, wave

I'm gon get this far as you let it, girl I can promise that you won't regret it

I usually smile and wave, wave, wave, wave

Hey baby boy, you got me

Do I?

Thinking to my self, you're sexy
I don't know what'cha you gon do, if I start to push up on you

Hold up, wait little mama
Do you finna you can deal with the showstoppa

Boy you ain't impressing me

That's not what I'm trying to do

So why are you pressing me

I'm trying to get into you

Boy I know that you're trying to get in my jeans
Be a cold day in hell, that's not happening

But I, I just came for love, girl that ain't me hold up (ain't trying to beg
for none)

Girl I know other guys they're not quite like me,
Don't know how to do good and treat you right like me
